

CLEFS

C clef Alto clef

The two semi-circles join on the 'C' line

F clef Bass clef

The dots straddle the 'F' line

G clef Treble clef

The middle of the clef circles the 'G' line

How the three most often used clefs fit together

A diagram showing three staves aligned vertically. The top staff has a G clef (Treble clef) and is labeled 'G4'. The middle staff has a C clef (Alto clef) and is labeled 'C4'. The bottom staff has an F clef (Bass clef) and is labeled 'F3'. The 'C4' staff is positioned between the 'G4' and 'F3' staves. The 'C4' label is repeated below the staff. To the right of the staves, the text 'middle C' is written.
